

Falmouth Tree Public Sibrary.

Pules of Regulations.

Art. I. The Sibrary shall be open for the delivery of books on every Wednesday and Saturday, from four to six, and seven to nine o'clock, P.M.

Art. II. Every inhabitant of the town over fourteen years of age, who shall be identified to the Sibrarian, may enjoy the privileges of the Sibrary, by signing an obligation to observe its Rules and Regulations.

Art. III. Each person entitled to draw books from the Sibrary will be supplied with a card inscribed with his or her name and residence. Cards shall be charged for at such a rate as the Trustees may determine.

61-6 Falmouth Rubic Library, MA

Art. IV. The holder of a card is entitled to draw one volume at a time with the following exception, viz: - Two volumes belonging to the same set may be taken, provided the books have been in the Sibrary two years or more.

Art. V. No book shall be kept out of the Sibrary more than fourteen days. The fine for retention of a volume over time shall be five cents for each week or fraction thereof.

Art. VI. When any book, on account of its popularity, is likely to be frequently called for, the time of its retention from the library may be limited to a week, the time being made conspicuous on its cover; and if such book is retained beyond the specified time, the person so retaining it shall pay the same fine as is provided in Art. V.

Art. VII. Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by these regulations shall be sent for by the Sibrarian; and the expense incurred in obtaining it shall be paid by the person who has retained it.

Art. VIII. No person returning a book to the Sibrary shall be at liberty to retake the same until the next Sibrary day. All books when returned shall be delivered to the Sibrarian who shall examine and place them whom the shelves before they are again given out, except by special permission of the Sibrarian.

Art. IX. No person, having a book from the Sibrary shall lend it to any person not a member of the same house-hold.

Art. X. No person owing a fine shall receive books until all indebtedness is paid.

Art. XI. All injuries to books, beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Trustees, by the persons liable.

Art. XII. All persons visiting the Sibrary rooms will be required to demean themselves quietly; no conversation will be allowed; and any person abusing the privileges, by improper or offensive conduct, will be denied admission to the rooms.

Art. XIII. Any person may receive books for consultation while the rooms are open. If a person neglect to return any book to the Sibrarian, he shall pay the same fine that would be charged for a week's retention over time.

Art. XIV. Books of reference, and those deemed by the Committee unsuitable for general circulation, are marked with a star, and shall not be loaned except by an order signed by a member of the Board of Trustees.
